A major reason for coaches globally selecting the Scottish FA Coach Education pathway is due to the success of The Association's graduates. This elite list includes Jose Mourinho, Sir Alex Ferguson, Andre-Villas Boas, Brendan Rodgers, David Moyes and Nuno Espírito Santo, to mention a few.

Based on the success of these managers, The Scottish FA is regarded as one of the best football coach eduation institutions in world football, affording its graduates fantastic international job prospects.

In Europe, applying for a C Lincense can be a challenging exercise for foreign coaches and acceptance onto a course can often take multiple applications and several years on a waiting-list.

As part of ONE10SPORT's partnership with The Scottish FA, we offer international candidates a guaranteed opportunity to complete the full Scottish FA Level 1 and UEFA C License courses through our "part-online" and "part-practical" approach. This partnership now makes the course more accessible, and as a result, the quickest route onto The European Coach Education Pathway for coaches based outside of Europe.

7. We provide comprehensive mentorship throughout the online and assessment phases of the course. Our travelling Coach Education Facilitators have completed the courses themselves and have a wealth of knowledge and experience, which will add significant value to your coaching journey, as well as enhance your probability of successfully achieving the qualification.

8. Building a powerful network. The biggest take-away from our coach education programs is the friendships and connections you make along the way. Travelling on your own makes the journey that much more difficult, puts added pressure on your course experience and without the "off-pitch" time spent with fellow coaches, it's harder to establish meaningful relationships. This component cannot be emphasised enough. Being a part of our cohort, means eating meals together, travelling to the training facility as a team and discussing course work off the pitch in the evenings, which all fosters a strong supportive bond with our travelling coaches. This network is critical to securing future employment, post course.

9. Eligibility to apply for the UEFA B License, following successful completion of the UEFA C License. Full support and motivation for acceptance onto the UEFA B License available to all UEFA C License graduates through ONE10SPORT. We are here to assist you with your full journey (UEFA C, B, A and Pro Licenses), not just the beginning.
